

Master of Arts Reading List

Core List

Students enrolled in CWL 896 (Directed Reading) must select and read thirty (30) works from the core list given below. Students must provide their committee chairperson with a list of the works selected at the beginning of the semester in which students enroll in CWL 896. The list they choose must satisfy the following distribution requirements:

1. Genre: at least one but no more than eight works from each of the following genres: lyric, epic (includes romance/verse narrative), drama, prose non-fiction; at least one but no more than ten works from the genre of prose fiction
2. Geography: at least one but no more than eight works from each of the following regions: Near East/Middle East, Europe, East Asia, South Asia, Africa, Non-English-Speaking Americas
3. Time periods: at least one but no more than eight works from each of the following periods: beginnings to 100CE [period 1], 100-1500CE [period 2], 1500-1650 CE [period 3], 1650-1800 CE [period 4], 1800-1900 CE [period 5]. At least one but no more than ten from 1900-present [period 6].

Students may petition an advisor to allow some limited substitutions for the works and authors on the list below. Abridgements of some works may be permitted by the advisor. Works that cross boundaries of genre, time or geography may count toward either of the two categories
