

Online Screening & Discussion of Powerful Documentary about 1953 US-British-Backed Coup in Iran

Written and directed by Taghi Amirani, and ten years in the making, "Coups 53" tells the story of the 1953 Anglo-American coup d'etat that overthrew Iran's government of Prime Minister Mohammad Mossadegh and reinstated the Shah. The CIA/MI6 covert action was called "Operation Ajax" and was all about Iran's oil and who should control and benefit from it.

Register for the Discussion and Receive a Link to Screen the Film HERE:

Use Your Camera
To Scan the QR Code

November 10, 2022 at 4:30PM PST, on Zoom

Join us November 10, 2022 at 4:30PM PST for an online discussion of the documentary "Coups 53," with Dr. Ervand Abrahamian, Professor of History, City University of New York, and Dr. Maziar Behrooz, Professor of History, San Francisco State University.

To register, use the QR code or go to bit.ly/Coups53Nov10.
Once registered, you will be given access through email to screen the film from November 7-10th, in order to participate in the November 10th online discussion.

